

Deputy Mayor Nicholas Pervan, Cassowary Coast Regional Council

Councillor Nicholas Pervan has served with Cassowary Coast Regional Council since 2020 as Councillor and this new term as Deputy Mayor.

"I am proudly born and bred in Innisfail with strong family ties to the community with my parents, siblings and children all having attended Flying Fish Point Primary School and Good Counsel College. Prior to becoming a Councillor at Cassowary Coast, I had a successful career in real estate and have been an owner/manager of a Backpackers Hostel for over a decade. My father was the last deputy mayor of Johnstone Shire and being an active part of the community is in my blood.

This is Councillor Pervan's second term as Division 4 Councillor."

Councillor Portfolio / Appointments to Committees:

- Infrastructure Services