

Mayor Trevor Pickering, Croydon Shire Council

Councillor Trevor Pickering was elected in Croydon Shire Council in 2000 as a Councillor, then in 2004 and 2008 as Deputy Mayor and in 2012, 2016 and 2020 as Mayor.

As the fourth generation of Pickering's living in Croydon, Trevor grew up on a local cattle station where he derived his primary interests in cattle and earthmoving.

However, for over twenty-five years, his focus and passion have been the community he loves so much, namely Croydon.

Trevor is a true leader in Croydon, working hard for his community and he is dedicated to see the Croydon Shire move forward by maintaining a progressive and sustainable growth in what Trevor sees as the best place to live in a community with a great spirit!

Trevor is a family man who lives in Croydon with his wife Leonie and their two daughters Josephine and Amy.
