Mayor Bruce Gibson, Hope Vale Aboriginal Shire Council

Mayor Bruce was first elected as a Councillor of Hope Vale Aboriginal Shire Council in 2016 and, following two successful terms in office, was elected Mayor in 2024.

A husband and father of five, Mayor Bruce brings extensive experience across the private sector, government, mining, child safety, and social services. As a first-time Mayor, he is committed to creating positive change and improving the wellbeing of the Hope Vale community.

Mayor Bruce enjoys working in the local government space, and the opportunity it provides to advocate for community priorities and the wider region.

Portfolio:

Governance, Disaster Management and Land

- Law and Justice
- Council Administration
- Disaster Management
- Land