Mayor Lisa Scomazzon, Douglas Shire Council

Mayor Lisa Scomazzon is in her third year leading Douglas Shire Council, guiding the region through a period of recovery, renewal and economic transition.

In addition to overseeing major road and water infrastructure projects, she is leading the revision of the Council's Planning Scheme and advocating for new opportunities to strengthen the region's economy and future prosperity. Under her leadership, Douglas Shire is also entering a new chapter in transport connectivity, with the new Daintree River ferry expected to be operational in late 2027.

A long-time local business owner and former Queensland Government employee with more than 26 years of public sector experience, Mayor Scomazzon brings a practical understanding of government, community and regional development. She is a strong advocate for the Far North and is committed to delivering outcomes that support residents, businesses and future generations.

Born and raised in Mossman, Mayor Scomazzon is one of five Scomazzon sisters and remains deeply connected to the community she proudly serves.
